RE: K9 Officer X

For Immediate Release

Due to uncontrollable circumstances, K9 Officer X has been retired from service. X has been relocated to K9 Hero Haven in Herndon, Pennsylvania.

K9 Hero Haven is a non-profit 501(c)(3) volunteer organization. K9 Hero Haven is dedicated to serving the military, veterans, and first responders by providing working dogs a home for retirement. The K-9s employed with the military and first responders are the best at what they do. They are expected to work in the toughest environments and face the harshest conditions. At any moment, they are expected to selflessly give their life to save ours.

The Huntingdon Borough Police Department wishes X a happy retirement, as he served the Department and Community well during his years of service.

The Huntingdon Borough Police Department will move forward with the K9 program, and Officer Rhett Stetchock will continue in his role as the K9 handler. We have begun the process of researching and securing another K9 officer. As more information is available, the Huntingdon Borough Police Department will provide updates on the program.

Thank you
